Hello Hiring Manager,

As a Certified Scrum Product Owner (CSPO) and Agile Practitioner with a Master's in Computer Science, I specialize in servant leadership, stakeholder networking, and process improvement to drive team velocity and deliver high-impact products.

I am passionate about removing impediments and fostering a culture of continuous improvement. My approach integrates deep technical literacy with product storytelling, allowing me to align cross-functional teams and leverage generative AI for efficient backlog refinement and technical documentation.

At the University of Texas at Arlington, I facilitated collaborative sprint planning sessions for 'MavMarket', achieving 90

I am eager to bring my expertise in Agile frameworks and my builder mindset to your department. I thrive in high-velocity environments that demand deep ownership and proactive problem-solving, and I look forward to contributing to your team's success.

Sincerely,

Abhishek Nagaraja
